

200 ALL ABOUT DOGS

Project Description

This beginning level project is for any age members who have not taken a dog project before and want to learn all about them. This project looks at how dogs think, what their basic behavior means, and how their senses work. You will also learn about the roles dogs played in ancient times, as well as, our lives today. It is not necessary to own a dog to take this project.

To Complete the Project

Use your project book as a guide to do the following:

1. Complete all 8 activities and all of the Talking It Over questions.
2. Take part in at least 2 learning experiences.
3. Take part in at least 2 citizenship/leadership activities.
4. Complete the project review. If you choose not to participate in judging at the fair, make arrangements to discuss and review completion of your project with your advisor.

Judging of this Project

This project will be judged as part of Special Interest Judging:

at the Union County Fair on Wednesday – Friday immediately prior to the start of the fair
OR
at the Richwood Fair on Sunday immediately prior to the start of the fair

Your advisor will tell you a more specific judging time later in the summer. At the specific judging time assigned to you, bring your completed project book and your project display. You will participate in an interview judging and then leave your exhibit (a display of your project) on display the entire week of the fair.

Project Display

You are welcome to bring your dog to the judging, if you own one. Prepare a display that shows the judge and fair visitors what you learned and accomplished in your project. For example: objects used or created, an experiment performed, visuals and other items used to complete project book activities, or a poster showing project activities and results. If you choose to make a poster, it must be regular poster board (maximum 22 x 28), not foam board or tri-folds. You may need to walk a distance from your parked vehicle to judging, plan accordingly. You may choose to bring additional items to show the judge your project work that you do not leave on display.

This is acceptable. You must however, leave something on display the entire week.

Your project book cannot serve as your project display.

Display Areas

At the Union County Fair Special Interest Projects will be displayed in the Armory. At the Richwood Fair these projects will be displayed in the Jr. Fair Building.
